

Word Bank

fountain

Definition: A drinking fountain is a device in a public place that produces a stream of water for people to drink from.

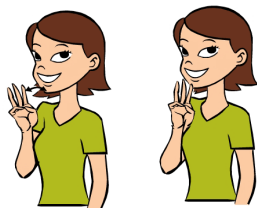

Word Bank is made possible by

 PNC

Grow Up Great™

CAN YOU SIGN FOUNTAIN?

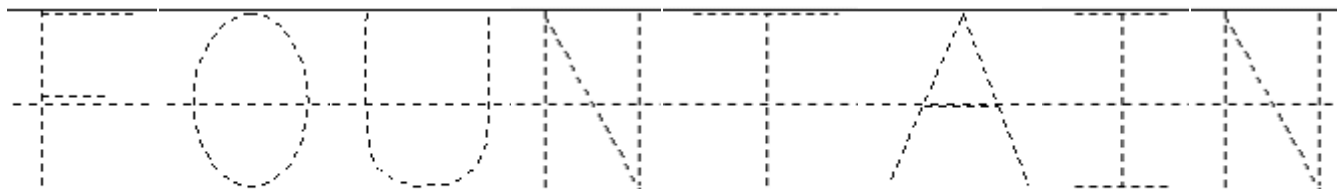

Water is signed using your 3 middle fingers and motioning inwards towards your mouth, as seen in the picture. Fountain is displayed by placing your open left hand, palm facing you, at chest level in conjunction with your right index finger mimicking a stream of water coming out of it.

CAN YOU SPOT THE ALLITERATION?

Friendly Fred walked fast for a drink from the fountain.

CAN YOU TRACE THE WORD FOUNTAIN?

TRY THIS AT HOME

Fountain Fun:

Utilizing old pvc pipes, elbow joints, funnels, hoses, sprinklers, etc. allow children to create their own 'fountains' during outdoor play, or at bath time.